Did you know....

The cornucopia is the most common symbol of the harvest festival. A horn shaped container it is filled with abundance of the Earth's harvest. It is also known as the 'horn of plenty'. The traditional cornucopia was a curved goat's horn filled to the brim with fruits, grains, vegetables and nuts. According to Greek legend, Amalthea (a goat) broke one of her horns and offered it to the Greek god Zeus as a sign of reverence. As a sign of his gratitude, Zeus later set the goat's image in the sky as a constellation known as Capricorn. Later on, people put baskets, shaped like horns, on their heart and tables as decorations and containers filled with their harvest. It was handy for family members to eat from and also showed friends and neighbors that they were blessed and had plenty to share.
