September's here, it's back to school.

September

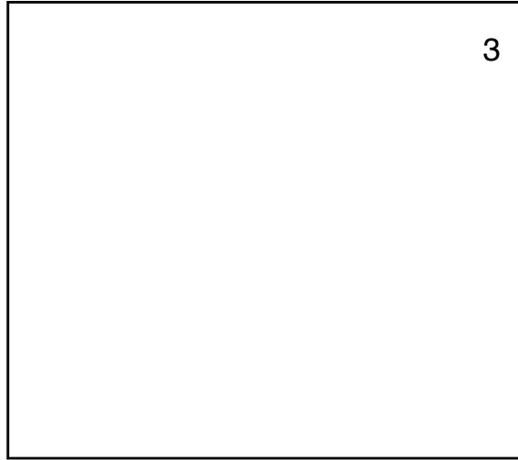

October's pumpkins sure are cool.

October

November's here; thankful are we.

November

It's December; let's trim the tree.

December

January's cold; the ice is hard.

January

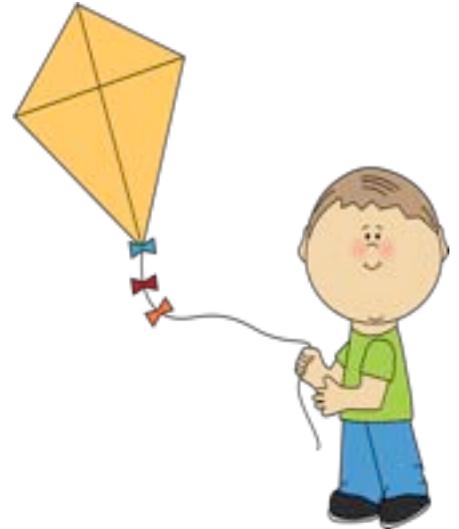

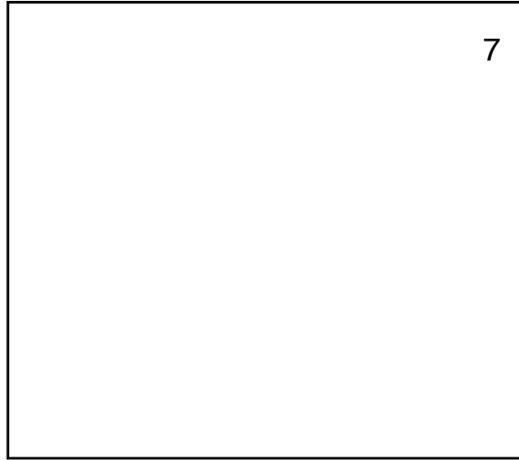

February brings a Valentine card.

February

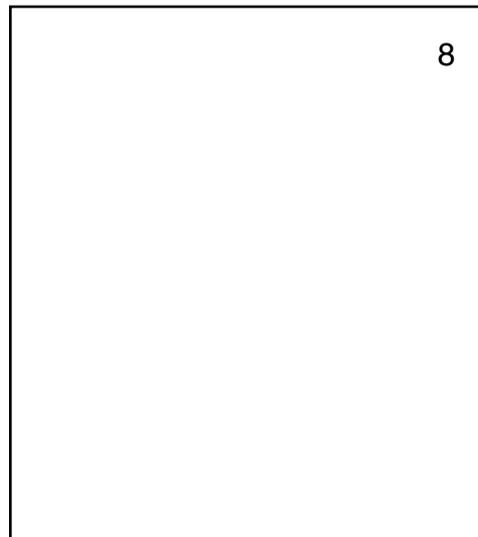

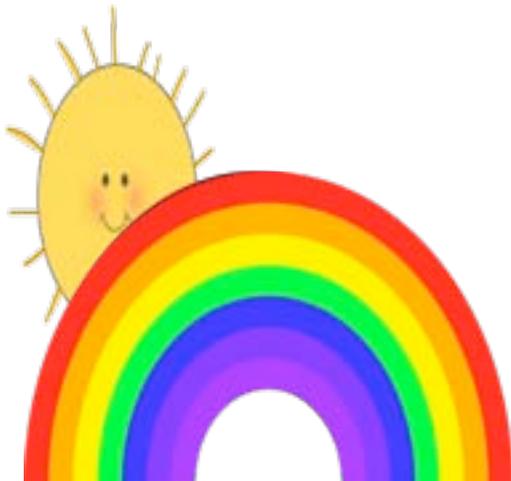

It's March and time to fly a kite.

March

In April, see a rainbow sight.

April

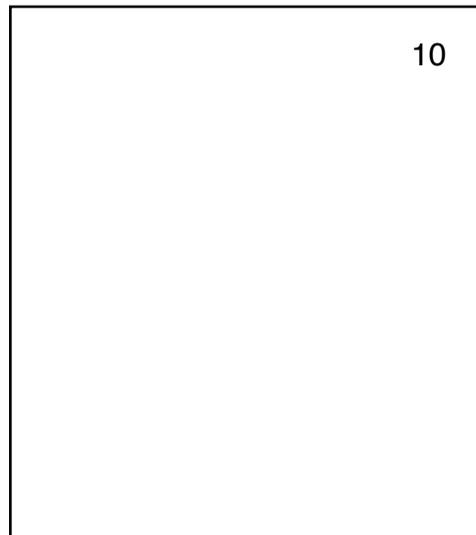

It's May, and time to give Mom flowers.

May

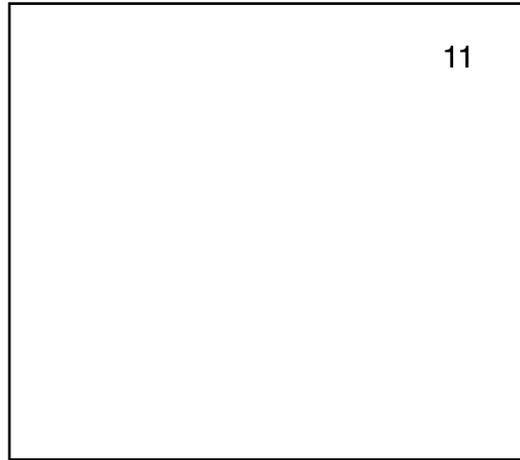

In June, I could swim for hours!

June

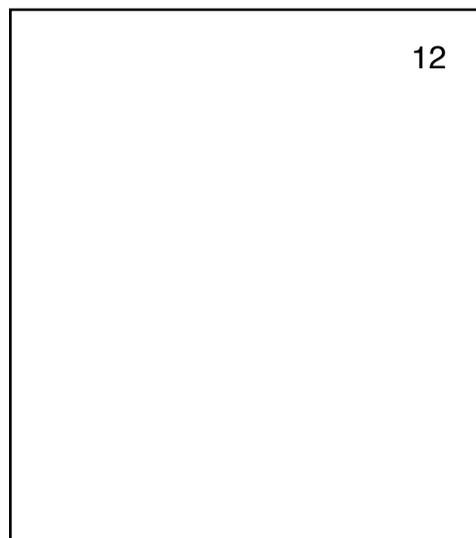

July brings fireworks in the sky.

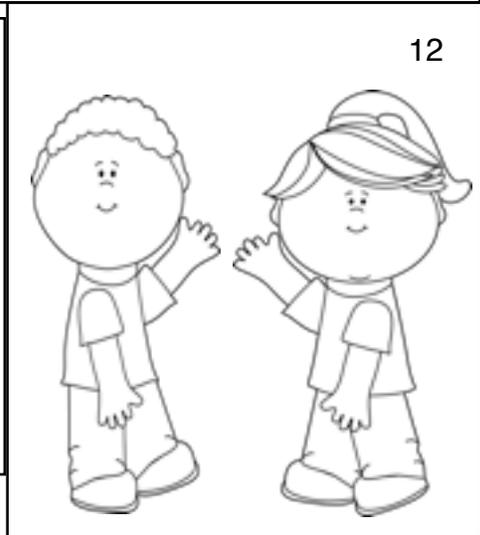

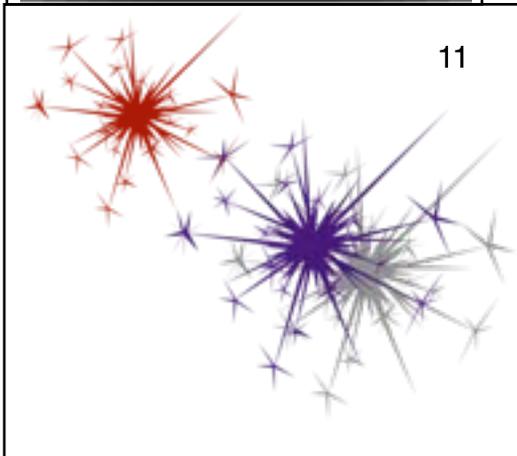

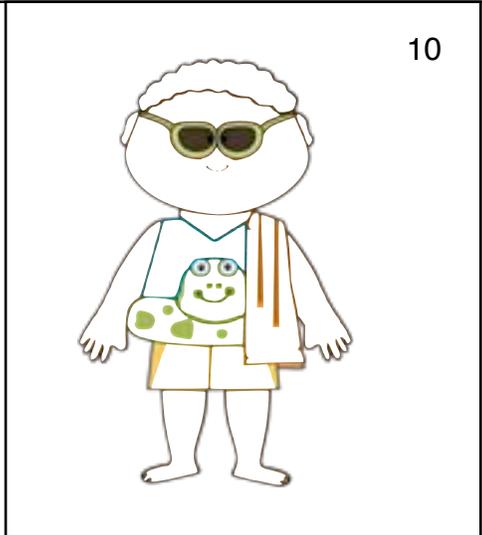

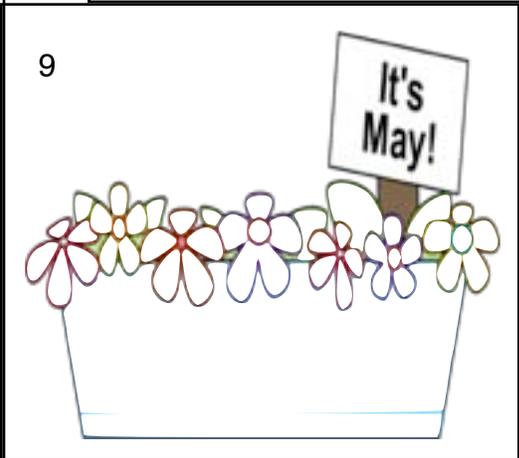

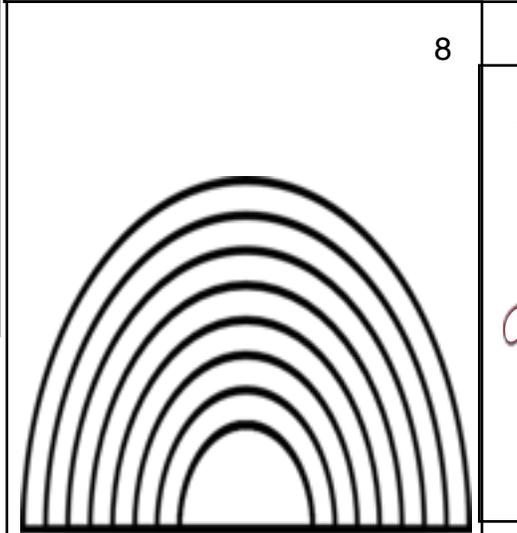

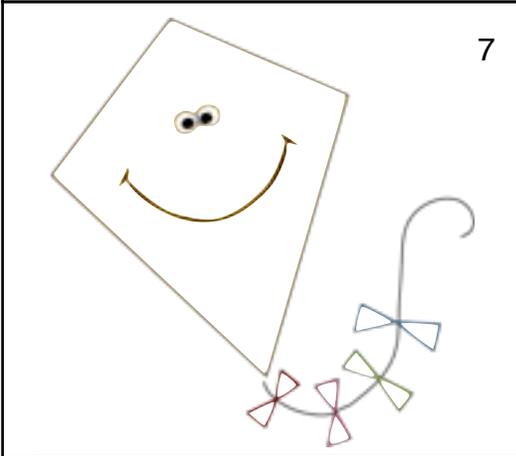

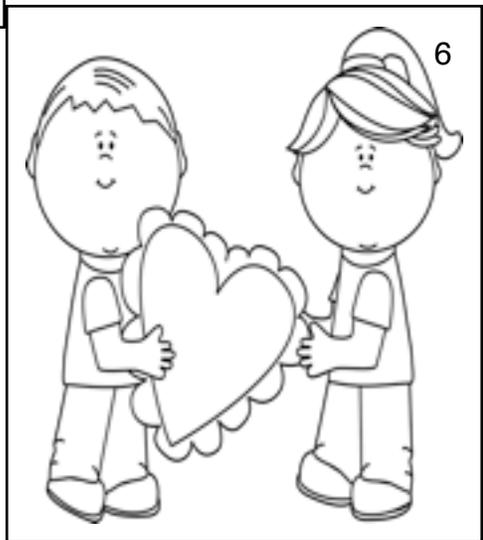

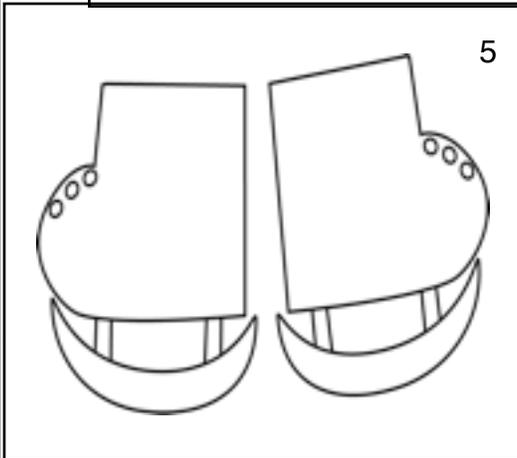

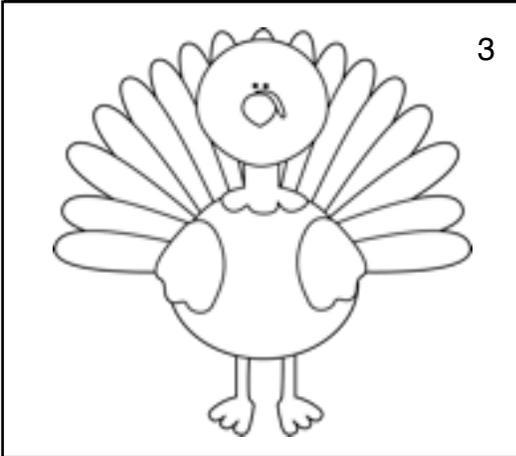

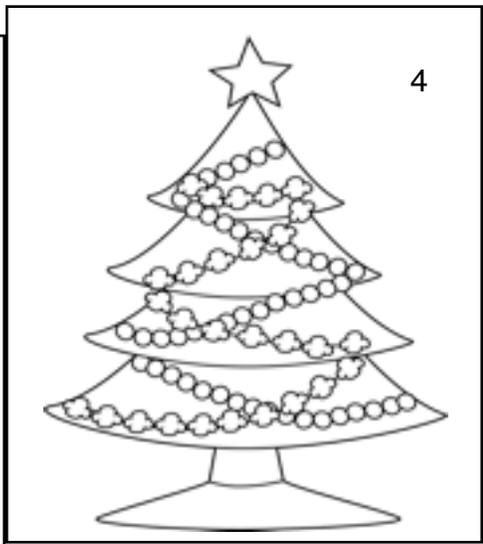

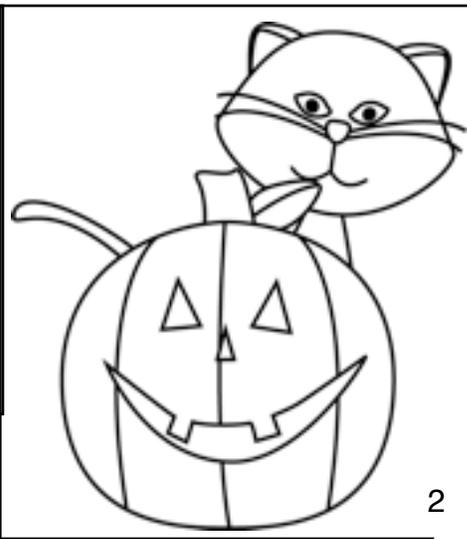

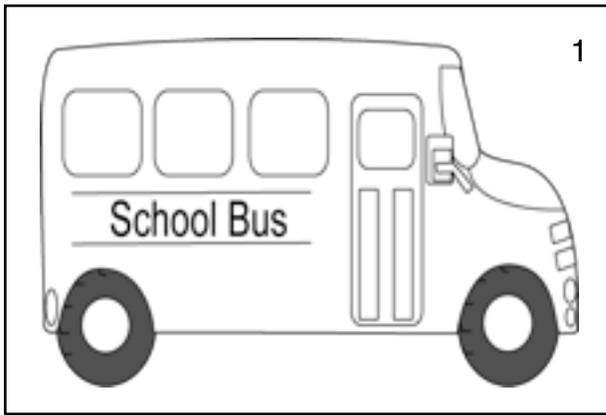

July

It's August, time to say good-bye

August

Color the pictures. Cut them out.
Glue them to the matching numbered boxes in your booklet.

What are the children saying good-bye to?

Draw a picture of what they might be saying hello to.

What's your favorite month? Why?

Draw a picture.

Page 9 is an optional page to use with older students for either discussion or extra writing practice.

Possible things children might be saying good-bye to:

Vacation

Summer

August

The relatives they were visiting.

Friends they only see in summer.

Hot weather.

Freedom

Sleeping in.

Summer activities like swimming, boating, going to the beach.

A place they visited during the summer like a cabin, cottage, or campground.

This is the last page of the book, so the writer is bidding the reader good-bye.

Possible things children might be saying hello to:

School

A bus driver

Riding the bus

Old and new school friends

Teachers

Principal, secretary, staff

Setting an alarm clock.

Waking up early.

Homework

Learning new things.

September

Cooler weather

An adventure of learning.

Even more fun!
