Dynamite Dad Writing Prompt Card

Run off on red construction paper. Students trim. Punch a hole in the center and attach a piece of yarn. Add gold glitter for more pizzazz..

Happy Father's Day!

Hope it's dynamite
just like you!

Love,

Kai den

I think my dad is a dynamite dad because . . .

Run off.

Students trim and add some color with crayons or markers.

Brainstorm why they think they have dynamite dads. Write the reasons on the board to help with spelling.

Students refer to the list and write down what applies to their father and then glue their paper to the back of their dynamite.

I think my dad is a dynamite dad because . . .

he works hard.
He is dynamite because he loves me and plays with me.
He takes care of our family.

Love, Kaiden
