In Our Classroom:

We do friendships.
We do sharing & caring.
We do I'm sorrys. We do praise.
We do celebrations, creations and memories.
We do dreams. We do laughter.
We do our best. We do respect and real.
We do peace and love. We do growing and working together.
We do listening and learning.

We do mistakes.

We do imagination.

We do questions

and risk taking.

We are like family!

The first thing I do
is always the same.

I pick up my pencil
and I write my name.

Make an effort.

Glue back-to-back.
Laminate & punch a hole at the top.
Suspend from the ceiling above your pencil sharpener.

Trace your students' hands on a variety of colors of copy paper; trim & have children sign their name on it. Print the center "promise poster" of your choice & glue it to a sheet of construction paper. Center and glue that to the middle of a piece of tag board. Make a frame around it by arranging the hand prints. For extra pizzazz, when you get school pictures back, make a copy, cut into little squares & glue them to each hand. Display in a prominent place in your classroom.
