

I'm Dino-mite At Doing Capitalization and Punctuation!

Directions: The dinosaurs are on the loose! Find the dino cards that are scattered around the room. Place them on the board, in the correct order. Write the numbered sentence that matches the numbered dino card on the lines below. Make sure that you use proper capitalization and end with the appropriate punctuation mark. Circle your capital letters and punctuation marks.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

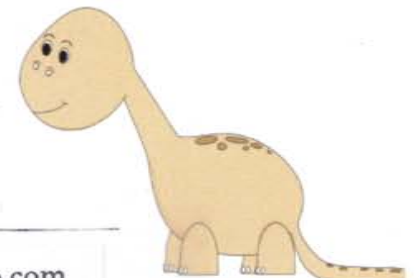

6. _____

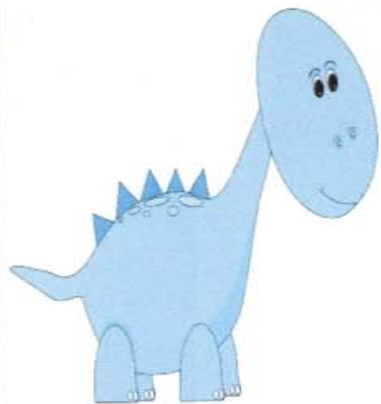

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

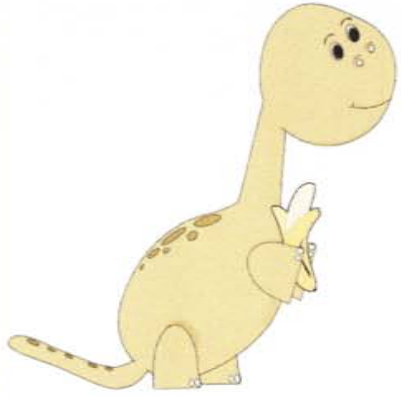

dinos are extinct

do dinos wear hats

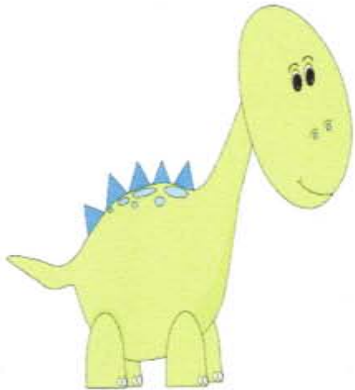

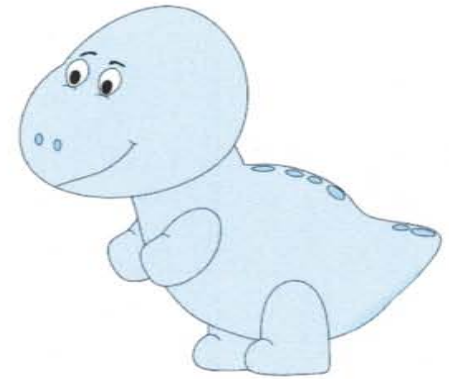

whats he holding

what is the dinosaur eating

this dino is blue

how many spikes do you see

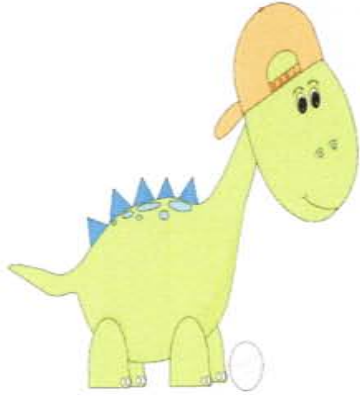

oh no it's raining

how many balloons do you see

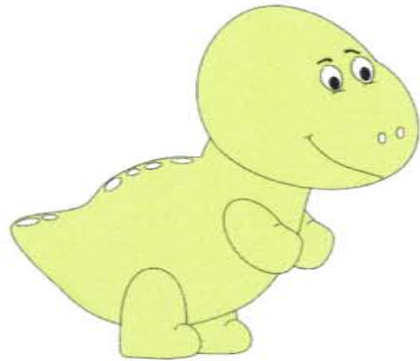

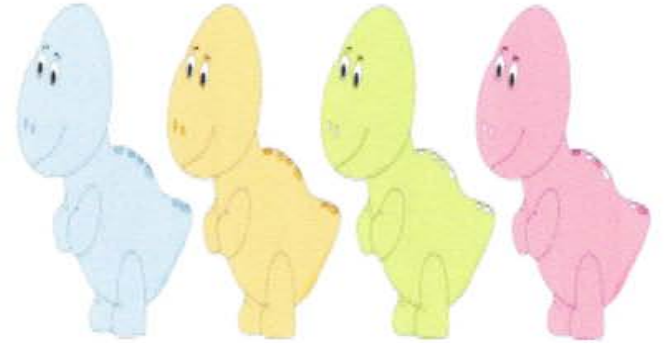

run it's a dinosaur

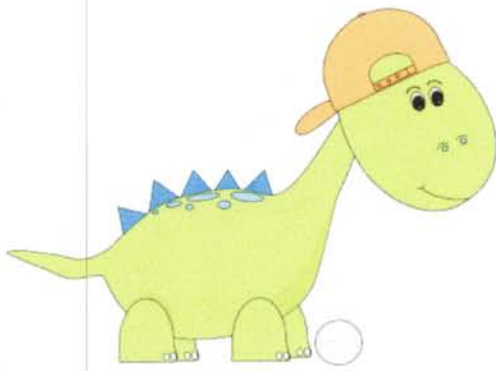

this dino likes baseball

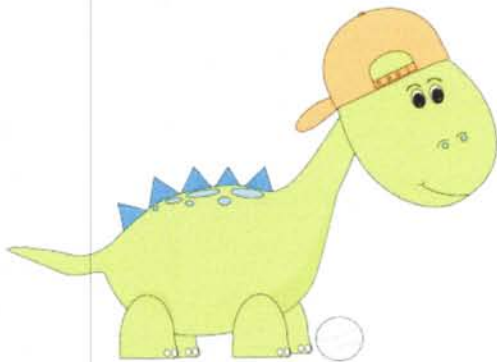

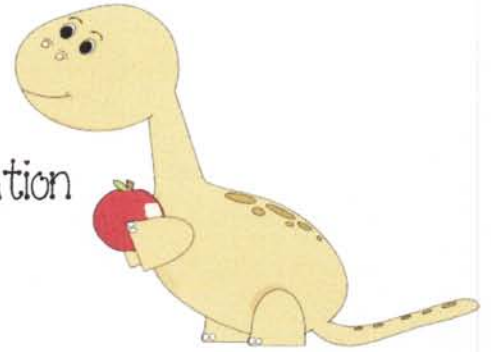

do you like dinos

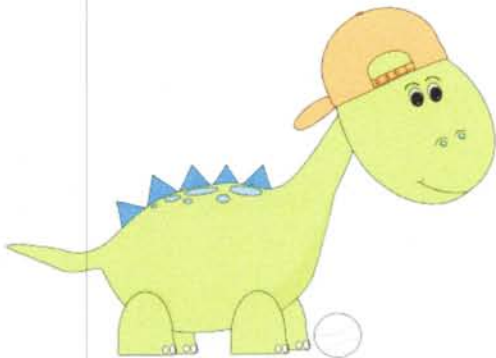

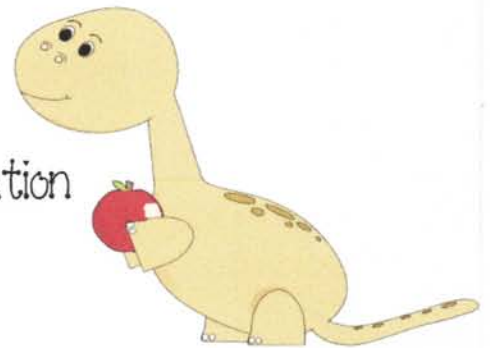

i see a green dino

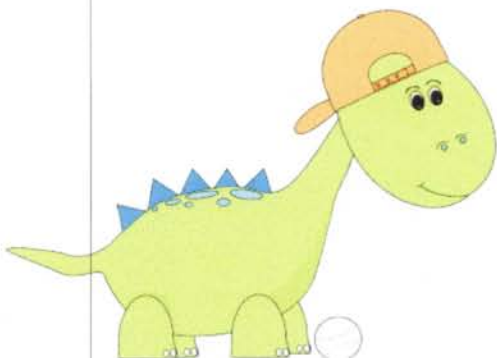

is doing dino-mite
capitalization and punctuation
work!

is doing dino-mite
capitalization and punctuation
work!

is doing dino-mite
capitalization and punctuation
work!

is doing dino-mite
capitalization and punctuation
work!

