

There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed A Life Cycle

©TeachWithMe.com

There was an old lady who swallowed a leaf.
She said: "What a relief!"
When she swallowed the leaf,

On the leaf were some eggs
and they started to hatch.
You are not able to catch,
these things when they hatch.
They wiggled and jiggled and tiggled inside her.

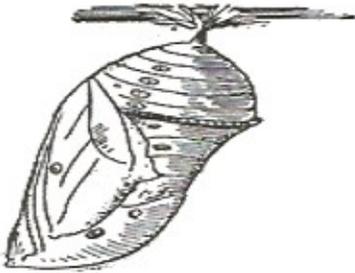

There was an old lady who swallowed a bat.
Imagine that!
She swallowed a bat.
She said she did that.
To catch the cat-erpillars that wiggled and jiggled and tiggled inside her.

There was an old lady who swallowed a word.
How absurd
to swallow a word.
I heard the word was metamorphosis.

metamorphosis

She swallowed metamorphosis because the caterpillar was in its chrysalis.

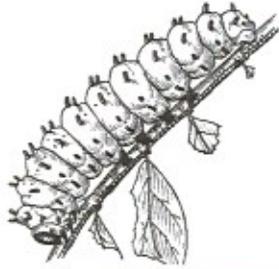

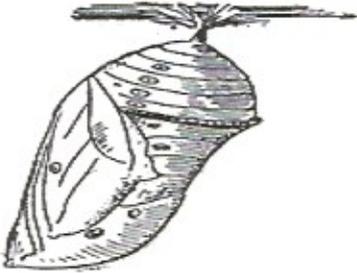

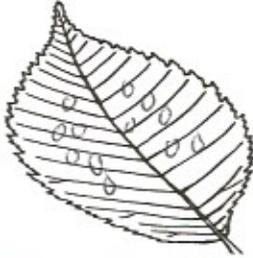

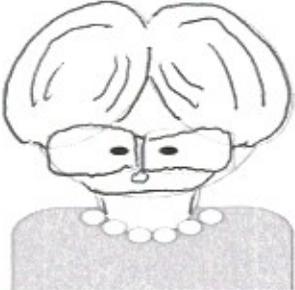

There was an old lady who swallowed a net.
I bet,
you don't know yet,
why she swallowed that net!
She swallowed the net to get the butterflies flying out of her head... or so it's been said.

There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed A Life Cycle Cards

	metamorphosis
	There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed A Life Cycle

Print on Cardstock or Construction Paper. Cut out & attach Baggie.