This fairy tale contains all of the 220 Basic Dolch Sight Words.

The author is unknown. It was going around a teacher's mail ring. The words are underlined.

The Best Thing In The World

Once upon a time, there were four brothers who lived in a far away land. Their father was an old king. One day he said, "I will not live long now. Today you must start out into the world. In a year, bring back the best thing you have found. The one who can pick the best thing shall be the new king." The first brother said, "I will look in every city or town. I will buy the best thing I can for my father." The next two brothers said, "We will both go on fast ships over the sea. We will find something better." The last brother said, "I am going to ask the people here in our own land to tell me the best thing." The other three brothers began to laugh. "Then you will never be king!" They said.

The last brother started off. When he had gone about six miles, he met a man. "What do you carry in those big bags?" he asked. "The best thing in the world," said the man. "These are full of the good nuts which fall from my five nut trees." "I don't think that would work," said the brother to himself, "I must try again." The brother went on another seven miles. He found a small brown bird. It had been hurt, so he put it in his coat where it could keep warm. As he went on, he saw a little girl crying. He ran to meet her. "Why are you crying?" he asked. "I want to get some water from the well," she said. "We use so much. We drink cold water. We wash the clothes clean with hot water. But I do not know how to pull it up. Please show me." The brother said, "Hold this bird and I will help you. It does not fly around any more because it got its wing cut." "Thank you. What a pretty bird!" she said. "I wish you would give it to me. If you will let me keep it, I will always be very kind to it. I will take care of it myself. I will make it grow well again." "Yes, you may have it," said the brother. So he gave her the bird and went on.

At night, he went to sleep under a round yellow haystack. When it was light again he walked on. Every day he would walk eight or ten miles. He asked the people about the best thing in the world. Some said it was best to sing. Some said it was best to run and jump and play. Some said the green grass was best. Some liked the red and blue and white flowers best. One man said the best thing was to ride a black horse. He always stopped to help people who needed it. Soon he made many friends. All the people began to like him. They would say, "See there goes the king's son. He would be just the right kind of king for us." Every door was open to him. The people would call to him to stop. They would ask him to come and eat with them. After he ate, he would sit down and read to the children. After he read, he showed them how to draw and write. Months went by. He still had no beautiful thing to take to his father. Just before the year was done, he went home again.

The time came when the king called his sons together. "What did you bring?" He asked them all. The other brothers had many beautiful things. "And what did you bring?" said the king to the last brother. "This is too funny!" said the other brothers. "He has nothing!" But the king was kind to the last brother. "What did you bring me?" the king asked again. "I bring only the friendship of your people," said the last brother. "That is the best thing!" cried his father. "You shall be the new king." And everyone lived happily ever after.

Dolch Noun Picture Cards

Alphabetical List Of the Card Names

There were cards that pictures did not make sense for, there for I left them out of the pack.

Here are a few ideas of how to use the cards:

- Laminate several sets and cut them out.
- Children can play the Concentration Match game (word to the picture.) They choose a partner and play 'til the timer rings.
- Run off a set on copy paper so students can make little picture booklets and rebus readers with the word cards and the picture cards.
- Children can use them with the word cards to make up sentences when they don't know the word card, or just to add to their sentences to make them more fun.
- Scatter them on the floor along with their matching word cards. Set a timer. The child who can find the most matches is the winner.
- Students can use them to play a card game with a partner. Like Old Maid or Go Fish
- Put Velcro or magnet strip on the back and use them on your flannel or white board.
- Add them to your word wall as a reminder of what the noun words mean.
- Copy off a set for parents to have so they can work with their child and play games too.
