

Make this a flip up, or cut open the doors and window and write inside.
Run off the barn on red construction paper. Make the silo silver. Students write Their name on the front in black marker above the door and the title of their work on the silo.

A set of eight horizontal lines for handwriting practice, contained within a rectangular frame that tapers to a point on the right side. A small heart icon is positioned at the end of the fourth line from the top.

A second set of eight horizontal lines for handwriting practice, identical in format to the top section, with a small heart icon at the end of the fourth line from the top.

