Beginning Or End Of The Year Backpack Writing Prompts

Diane Henderson

We packed a lot of learning and fun into this year!

Hi! My name is Rachel.

I had so much fun in 1st grade.

My favorite subject was math. We played tons of games to help us practice addition and subtraction and other stuff.

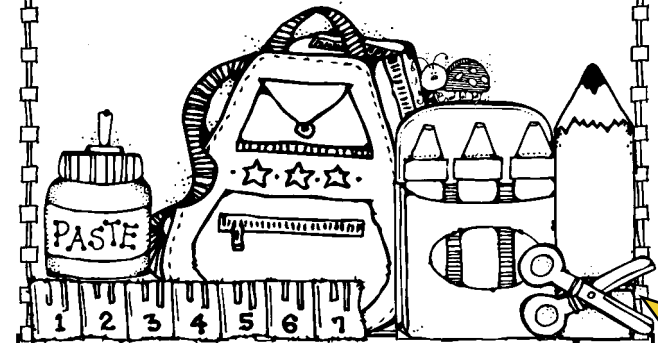

My favorite activity was center time.
I especially liked when we got to do crafts.

For specials we had art, gym, computers, music and Spanish.
I really liked gym and art the best, but the others were fun too.

My favorite field trip was going to the zoo. You'll get to write an animal report. I learned a lot! I chose elephants to write about.

Best of all, was learning how to read! I want to be an author someday.

We packed a lot of learning and fun into this year!

Exciting
stuff:

Super-fun
stuff:

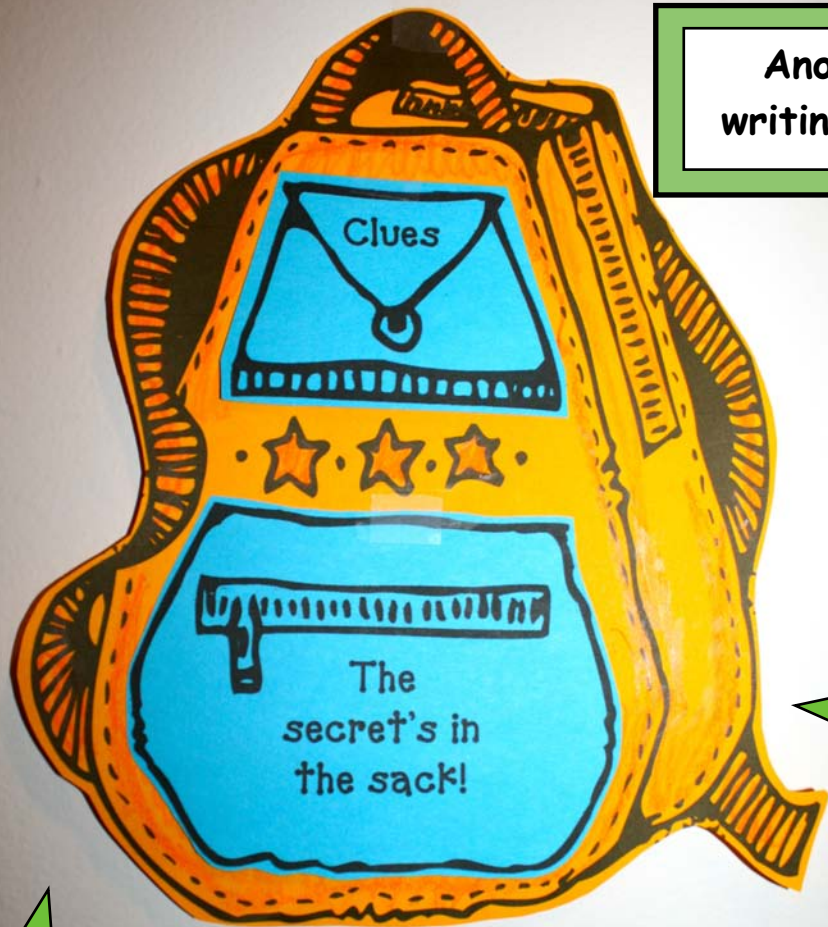

Stuff you'll learn:

Stuff you'll do:

There are 4 front flap options:
Blank, 2 School & a Summer one. Children can make the school one for themselves, in lieu of a Memory Book or use the other school option and make this for an in-coming student. There's also a blank copy you can program with whatever.

Another backpack
writing prompt option.

Backpack.
Pack on your back.
Help us guess
what's in your sack.

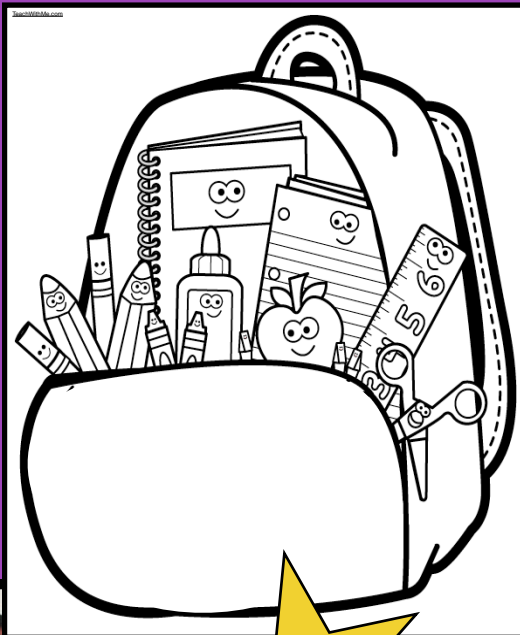

1. It's multi colored and plastic.
2. You play with this on the beach.
3. It's a sphere.

"stuffed" backpack.
The top flap flips up or over,
to reveal the writing prompt.

Children write their grade on the front. Students can make these for themselves, or leave with the teacher to give to next year's kiddos.
