

Top Secret!

Top Secret!

Top S

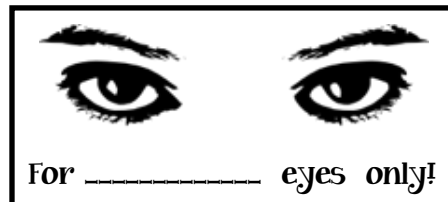

Top Secret!

Official
Elf Spy

Congratulations!
You've done a
super job.

Congratulations!
You've done a
super job.

TOP SECRET

Diary Days Writing Ideas

Use these scenarios to jump start your writing.
Does your elf help, or is it a total disaster?

Teachers: have students choose a number and then do that number; or run off, cut up and have them choose a prompt out of an elf hat or other container.

TeachWithMe.com
Clipart by mycutegraphics.com

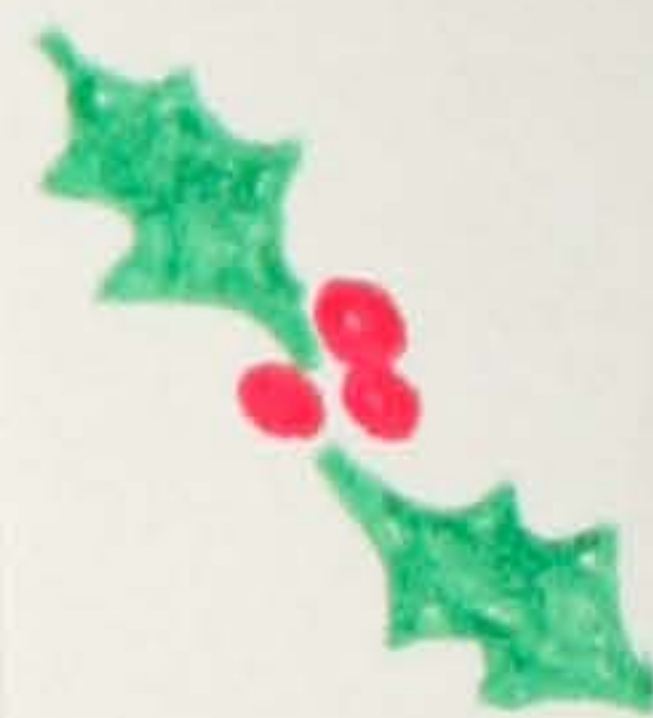

1. There's a blizzard at the North Pole.
2. An avalanche has wiped out the candy factory.
3. The reindeer are sick from eating something.
4. Rudolph needs glasses.
5. Free choice
6. The sleigh is stuck in the ice.
7. The penguins ate all of the gingerbread.
8. A pack of polar bears are headed your way.
9. Santa is no where to be found.
10. There's a horrible smell at the factory. What is it? Where's it coming from?
11. The elves have run out of paint and can't get the toys done.
12. The glue machine has gone wild and slopped glue over everything.
13. The Polar Express has no brakes and is headed towards the toy factory.
14. Several elves are trapped on an iceberg.
15. Santa slipped and broke his leg.
16. The reindeer have lost their power to fly.
17. Santa is lost during his test run to make sure the sleigh works.
18. Several elves have super-glued themselves to each other.
19. Someone stole the keys to the warehouse where the toys are kept.
20. Someone has kidnapped Mrs. Claus
21. The North Pole is having a heat wave and everything is melting!
22. The toys have come to life and are trying to take over.
23. No one can find Santa's suit.
24. Mrs. Claus shrunk all of the elves' clothes in the dryer. They have nothing to wear!
25. The elves can't get their work done because they all have the hiccups.
26. The pipes froze and there's water everywhere!
27. An elf fell in the huge vat of candy syrup.
28. The conveyor belts are stuck in "fast" mode and toys are flying everywhere.
29. The elves have gone on strike.
30. The penguins are challenging the reindeer to pull Santa's sleigh.

DIARY
of a
Wimpy Elf

Kelli

DIARY of a Wimpy Elf

Kelli

