I'm leaving with a heavy sigh, for now it's time to say good-bye.
I've read some stories and sang some songs, learned how to share and get along.
I know my alphabet and so much more; I'll be skipping, as I go out the door.
I've graduated and now I'm done. I've laughed and learned and had some fun.
I'm excited and I can't wait. I know that kindergarten will be great.
So congratulations one and all, I'll see you next year in the fall.

The kindergarten one says
"I know that 1st grade will be great."
There's also a black & white template.
