

Pete's "I Love My White Shoes" Storytelling Hand Print Craft

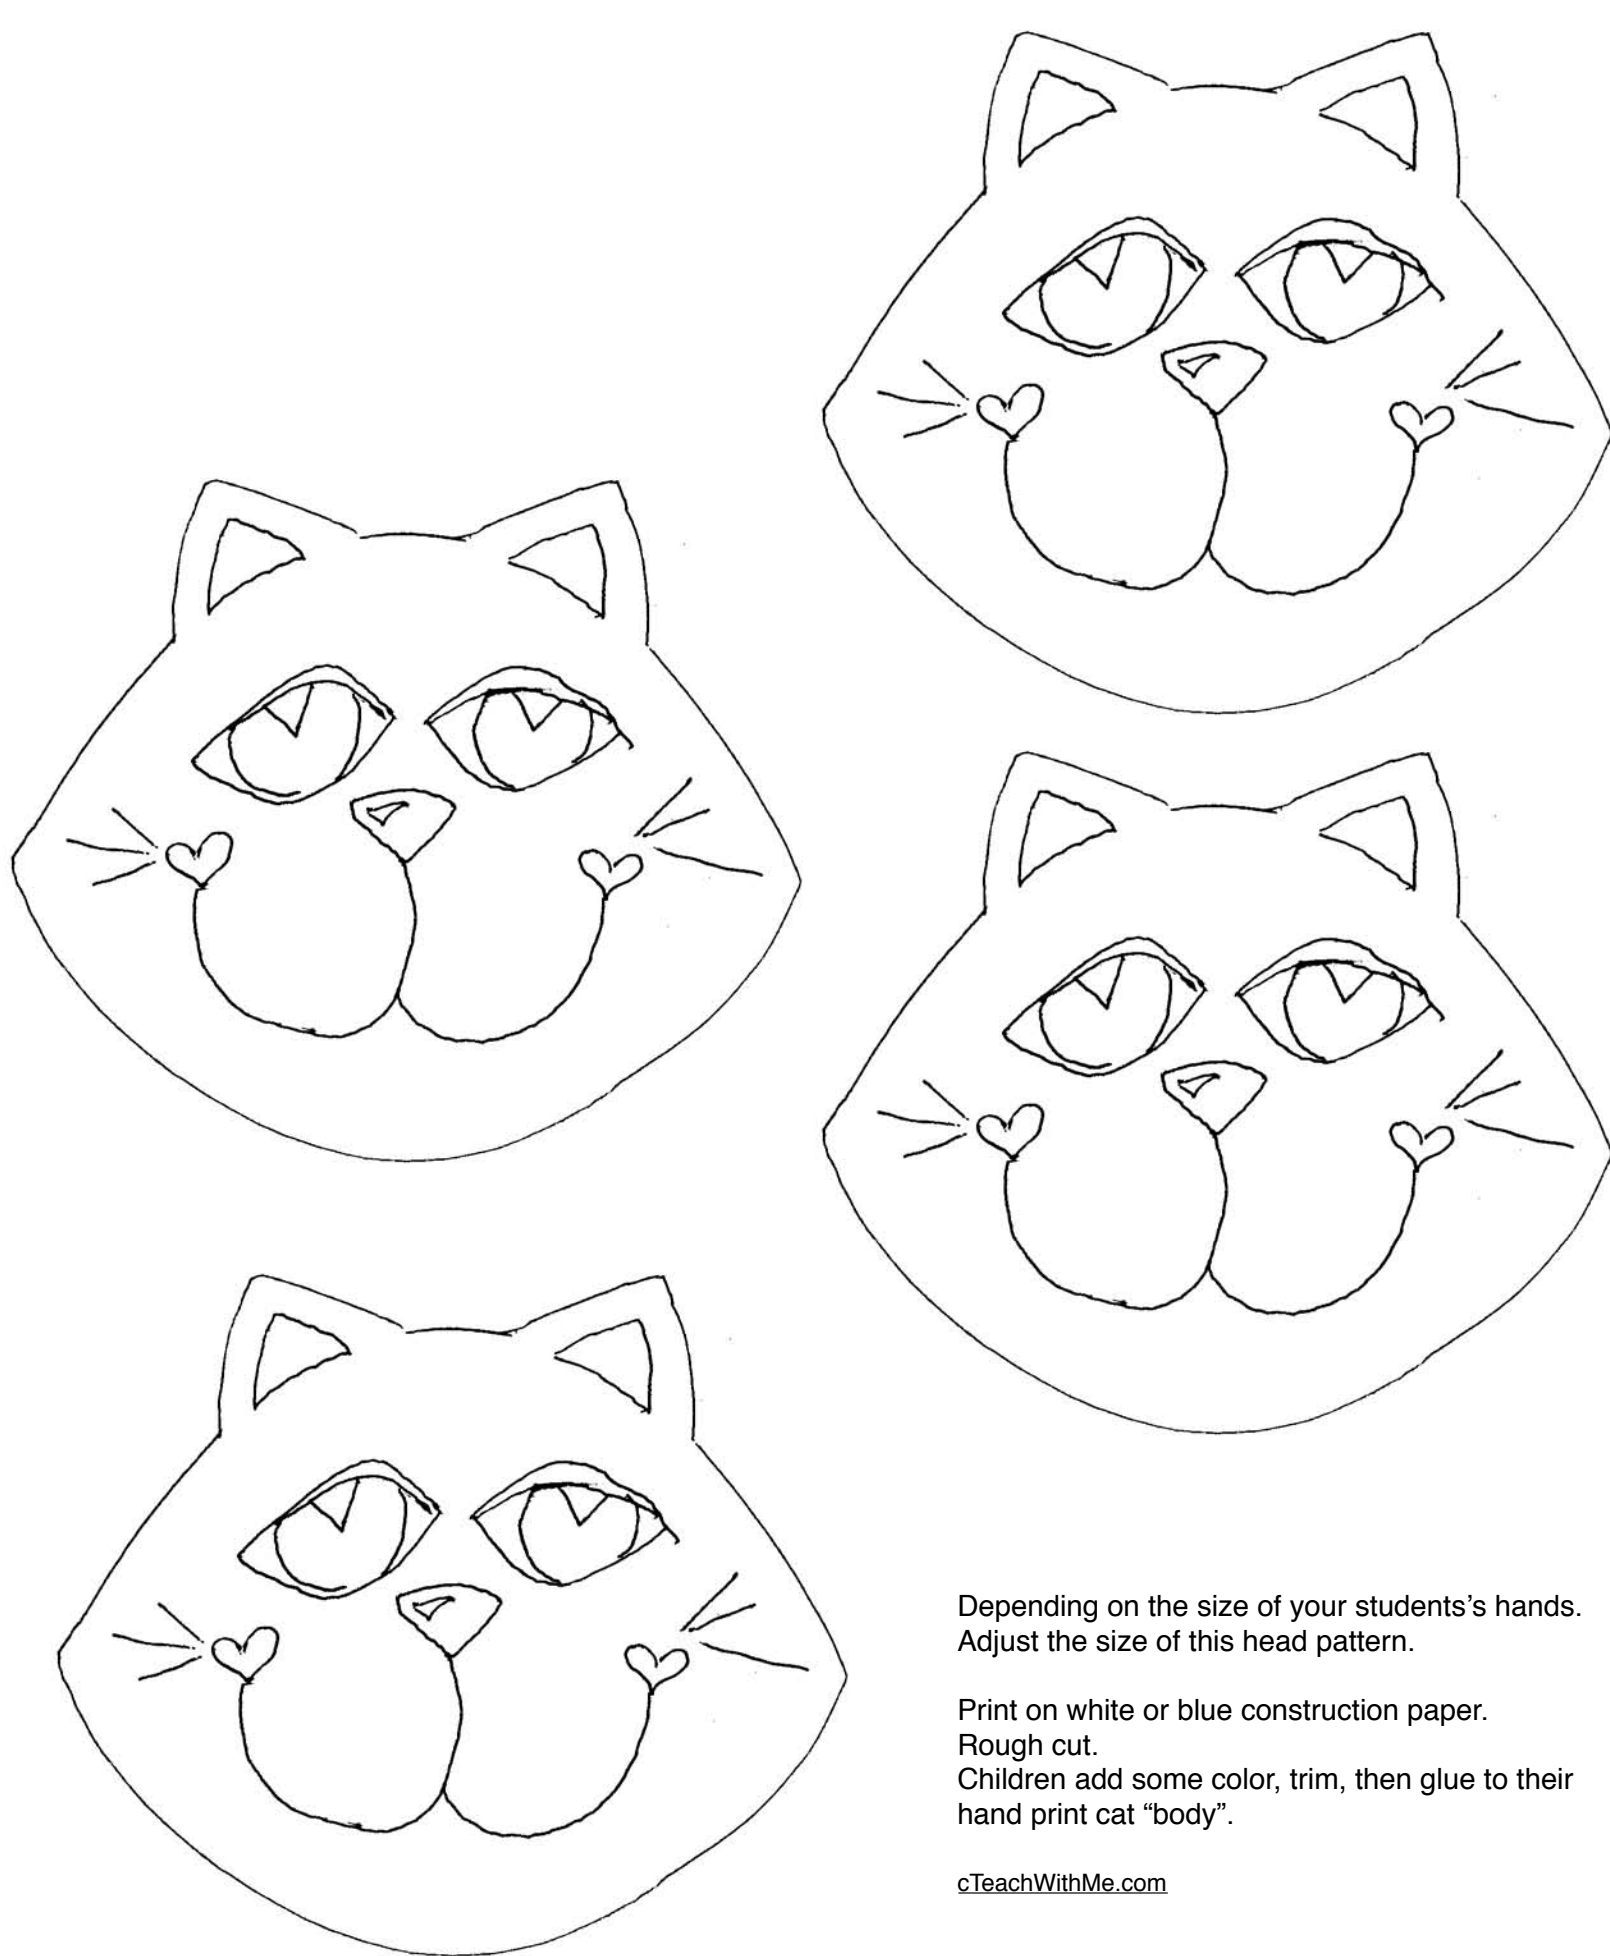

Diane Henderson

This is the hand
you used to hold
when I was only 6
years old.

We read
"I Love My White Shoes".
Please ask me to tell you the story.

Depending on the size of your students's hands.
Adjust the size of this head pattern.

Print on white or blue construction paper.
Rough cut.
Children add some color, trim, then glue to their hand print cat "body".

Three heart-shaped templates are arranged on the page. Each heart has a thick black outline and contains a sentence with a blank space for a number. The hearts are positioned in a triangular layout, with one at the top left, one at the top right, and one at the bottom left.

Run off on pink and red construction paper.

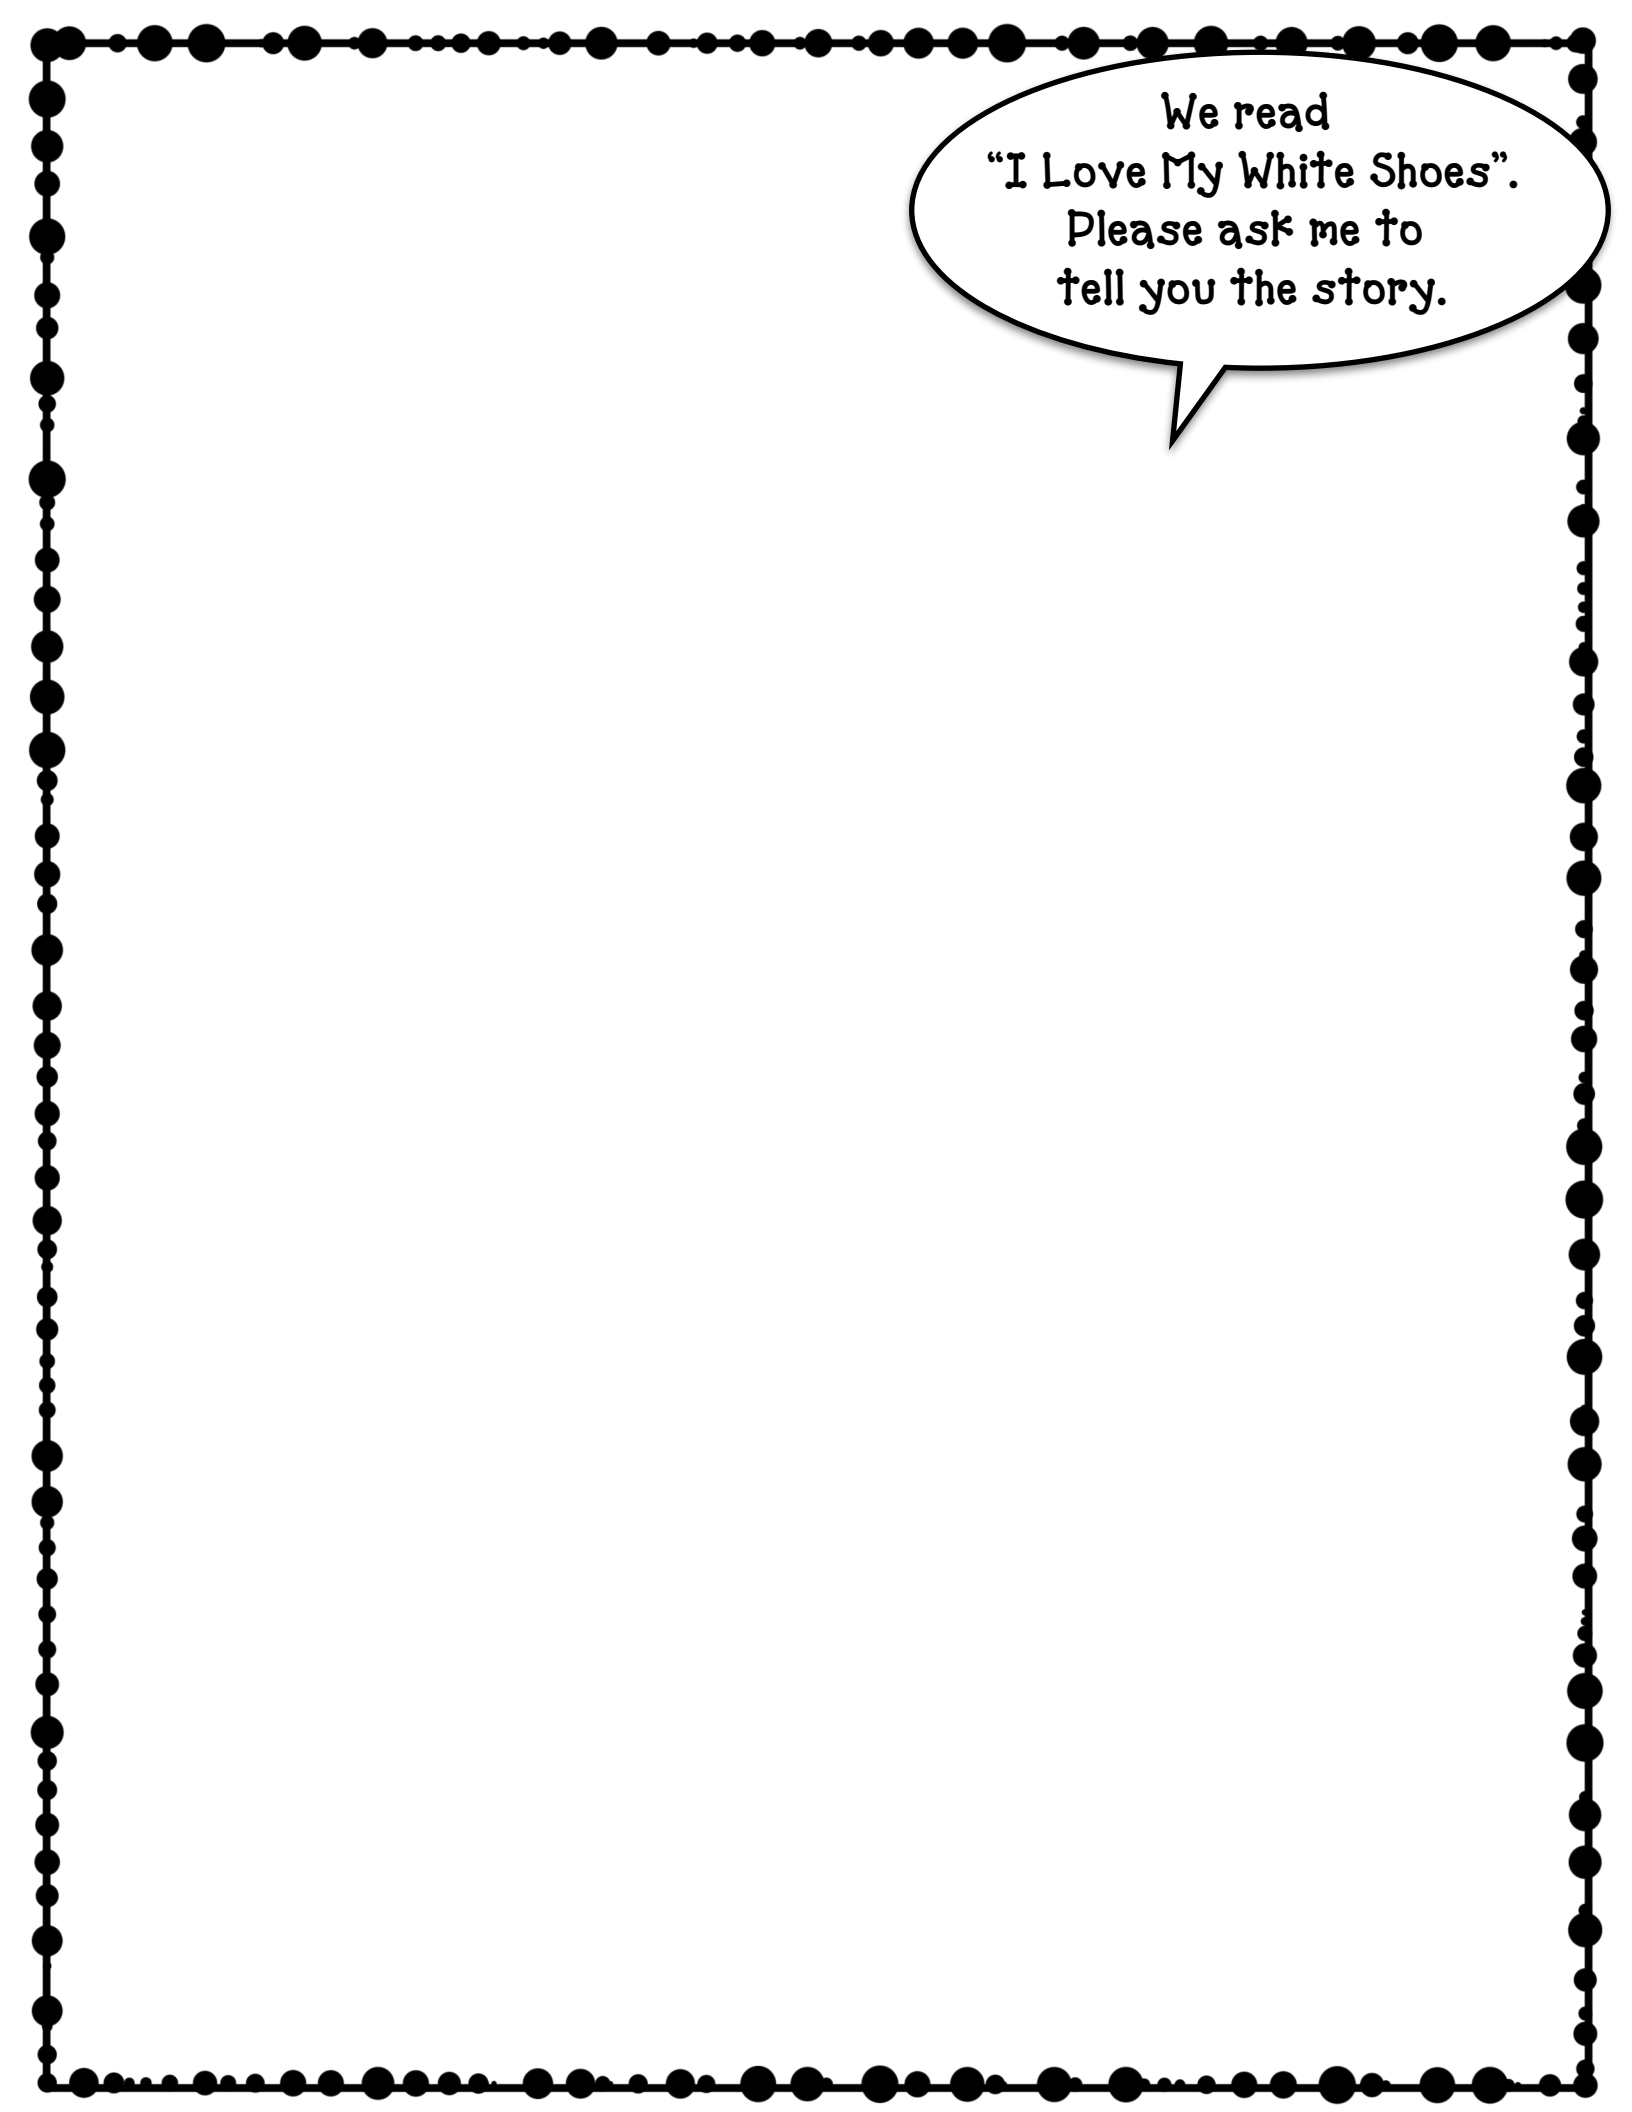

Rough cut.

Children write their name on the bottom.

Glue a school photo to the top right side of the heart for even more keepsake value.

Run off on white, red, blue and brown construction paper. Each child gets one of every color so they can retell the story "I Love My White Shoes". These can be pre-cut for PK kiddos.
