

This "stache"
of papers
belongs to:

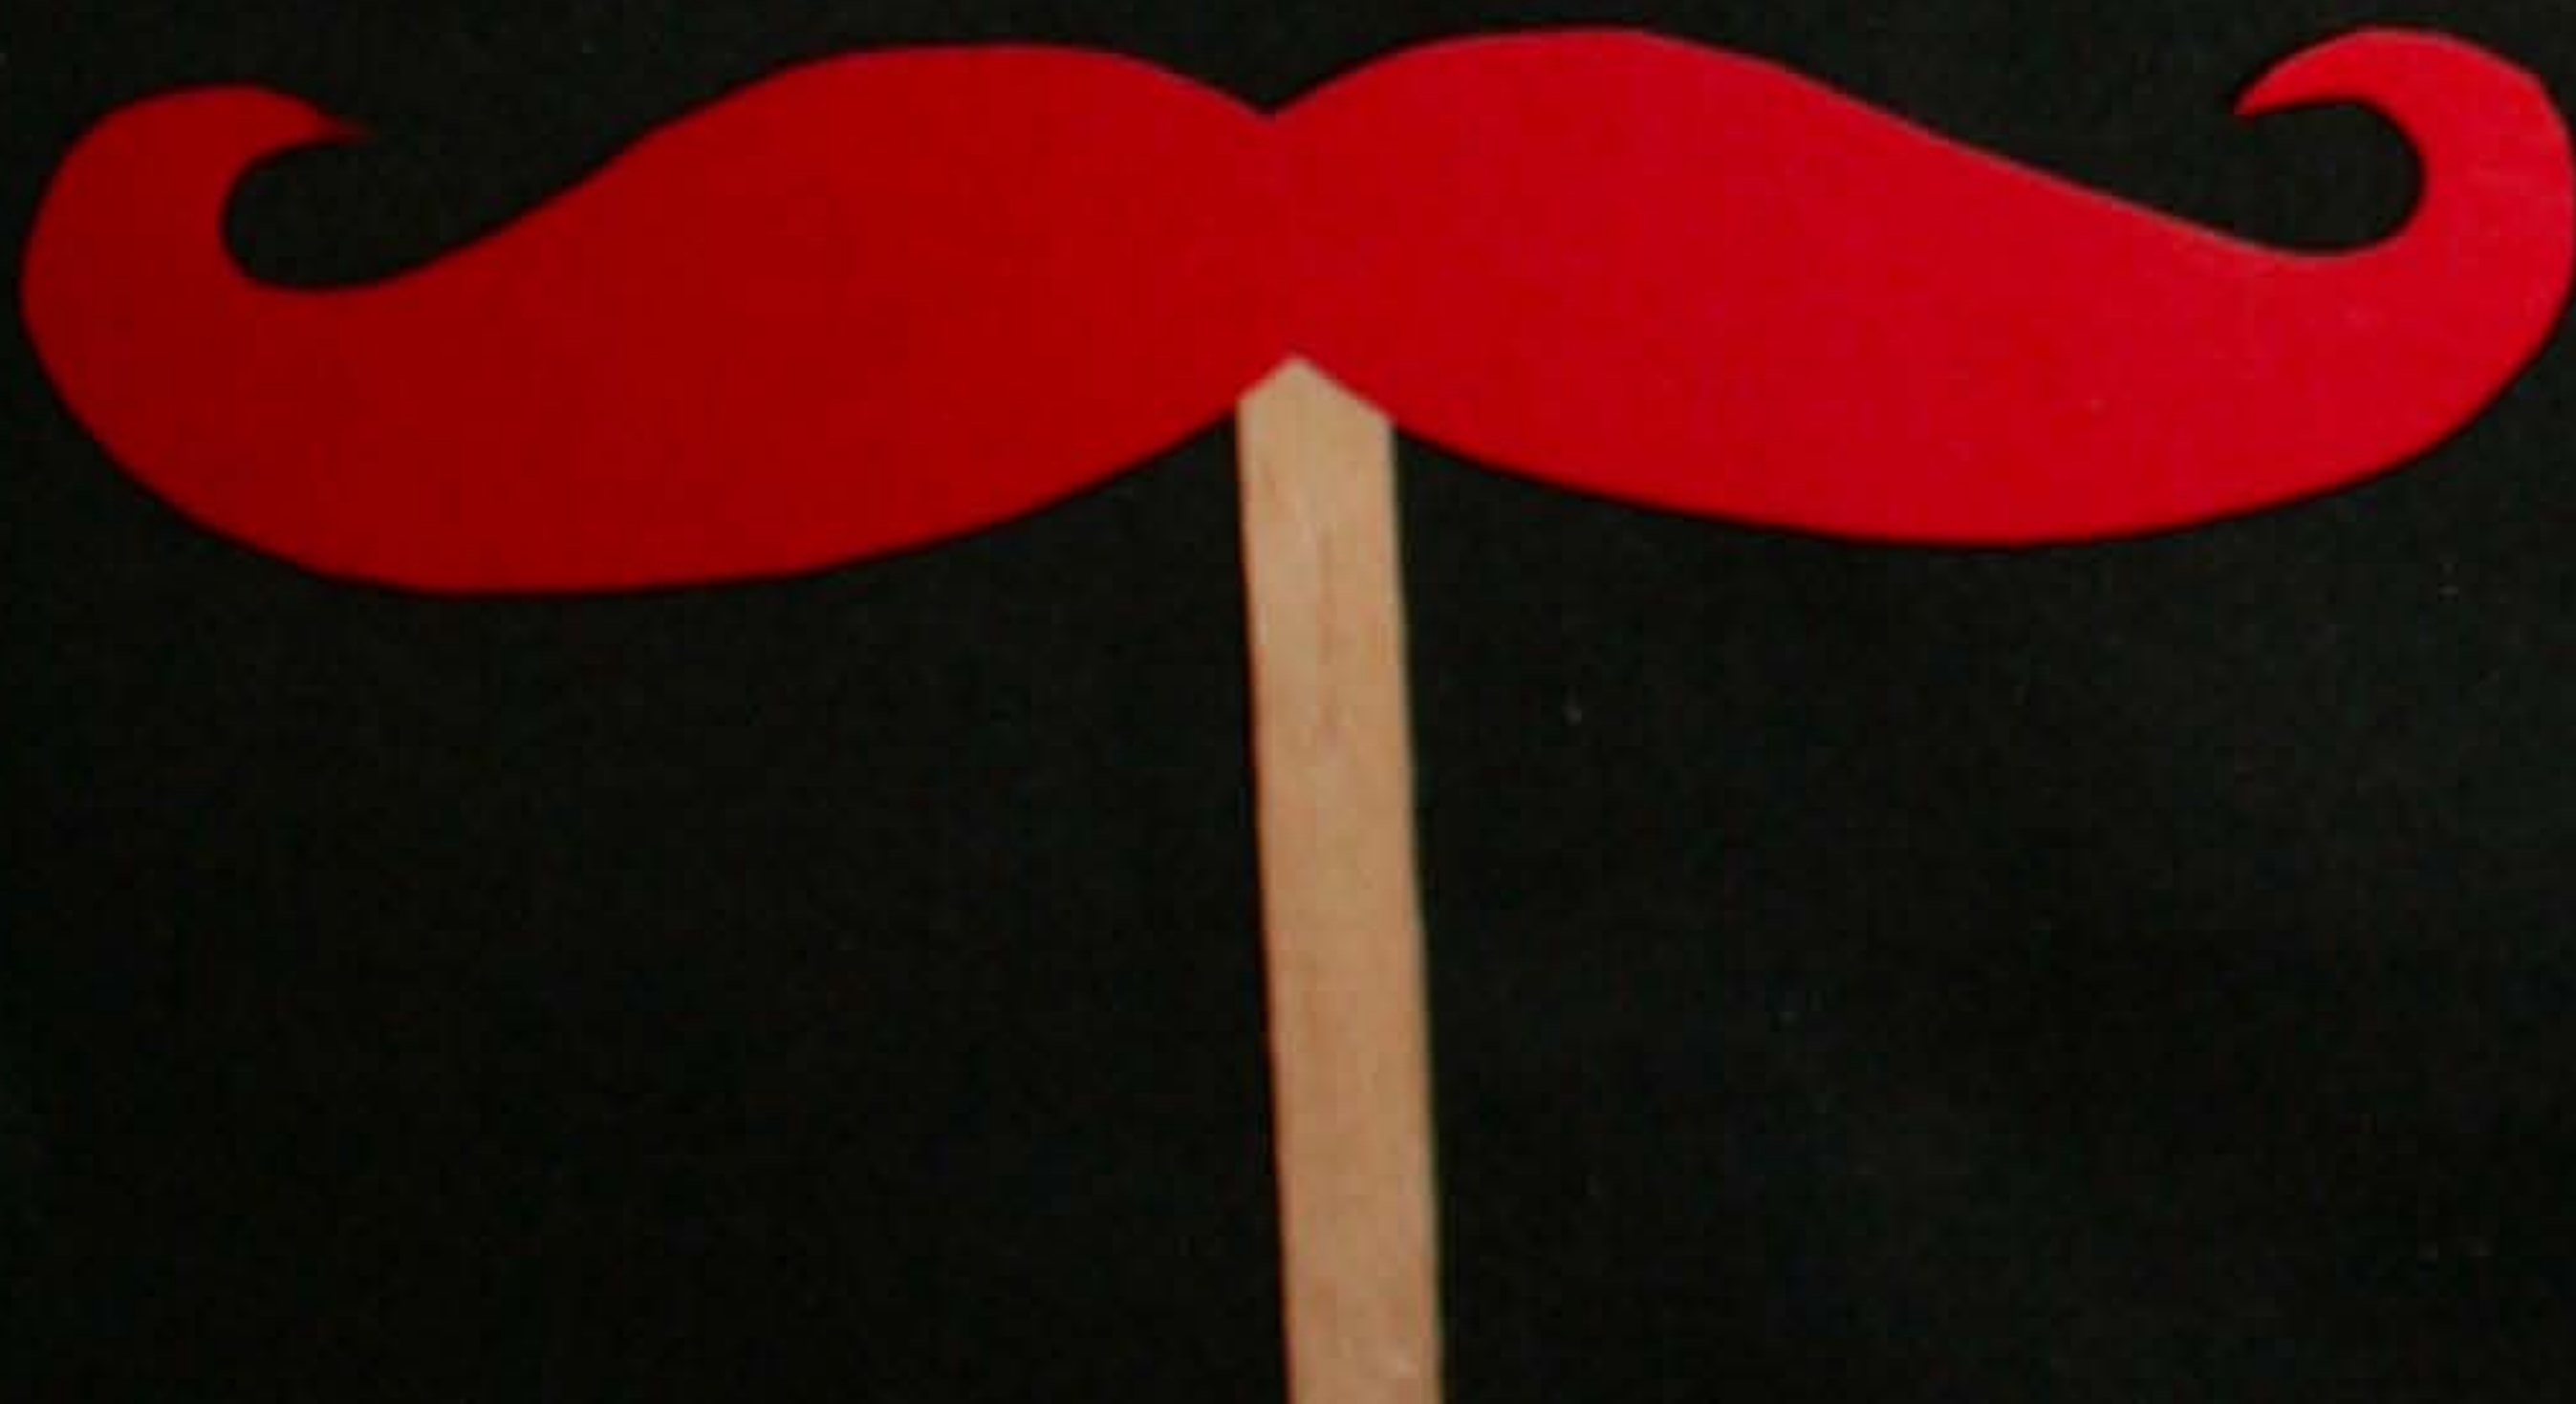

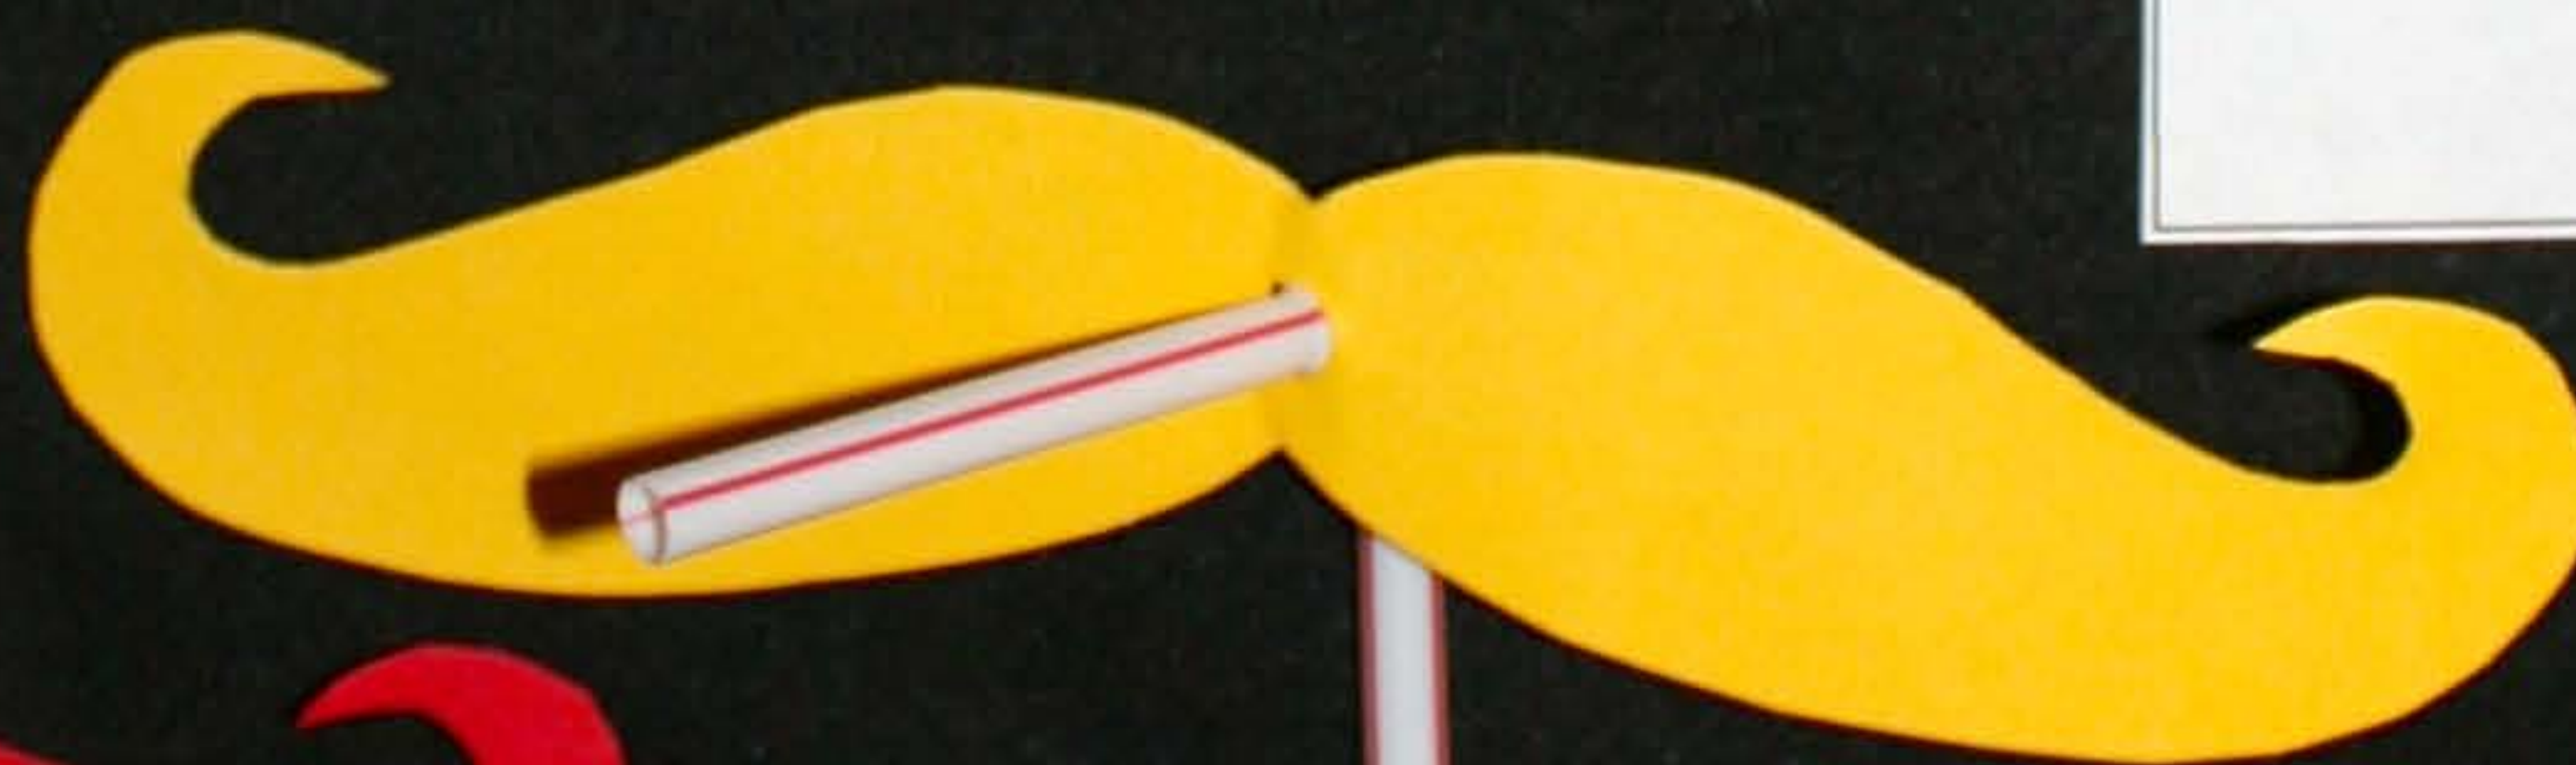

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to spell these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to read these words.

I
"mustache"
you to please
read
every day!
I
will keep your place.

I
"mustache"
you to please
read
every day!

I
will keep your place.

I
"mustache"
you to please
read
every day!

I
will keep your place.

I
"mustache"
you to please
read
every day!

I
will keep your place.

I
"mustache"
you to please
read
every day!

I
will keep your
place.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to spell these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to spell these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to spell these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to read these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to read these words.

I "mustache" you to please
learn how to read these words.

This "stache"
of papers
belongs to:

This "stache"
of papers
belongs to:

This "stache"
of papers
belongs to:

Print off and have students put on a portfolio, file, or folder.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

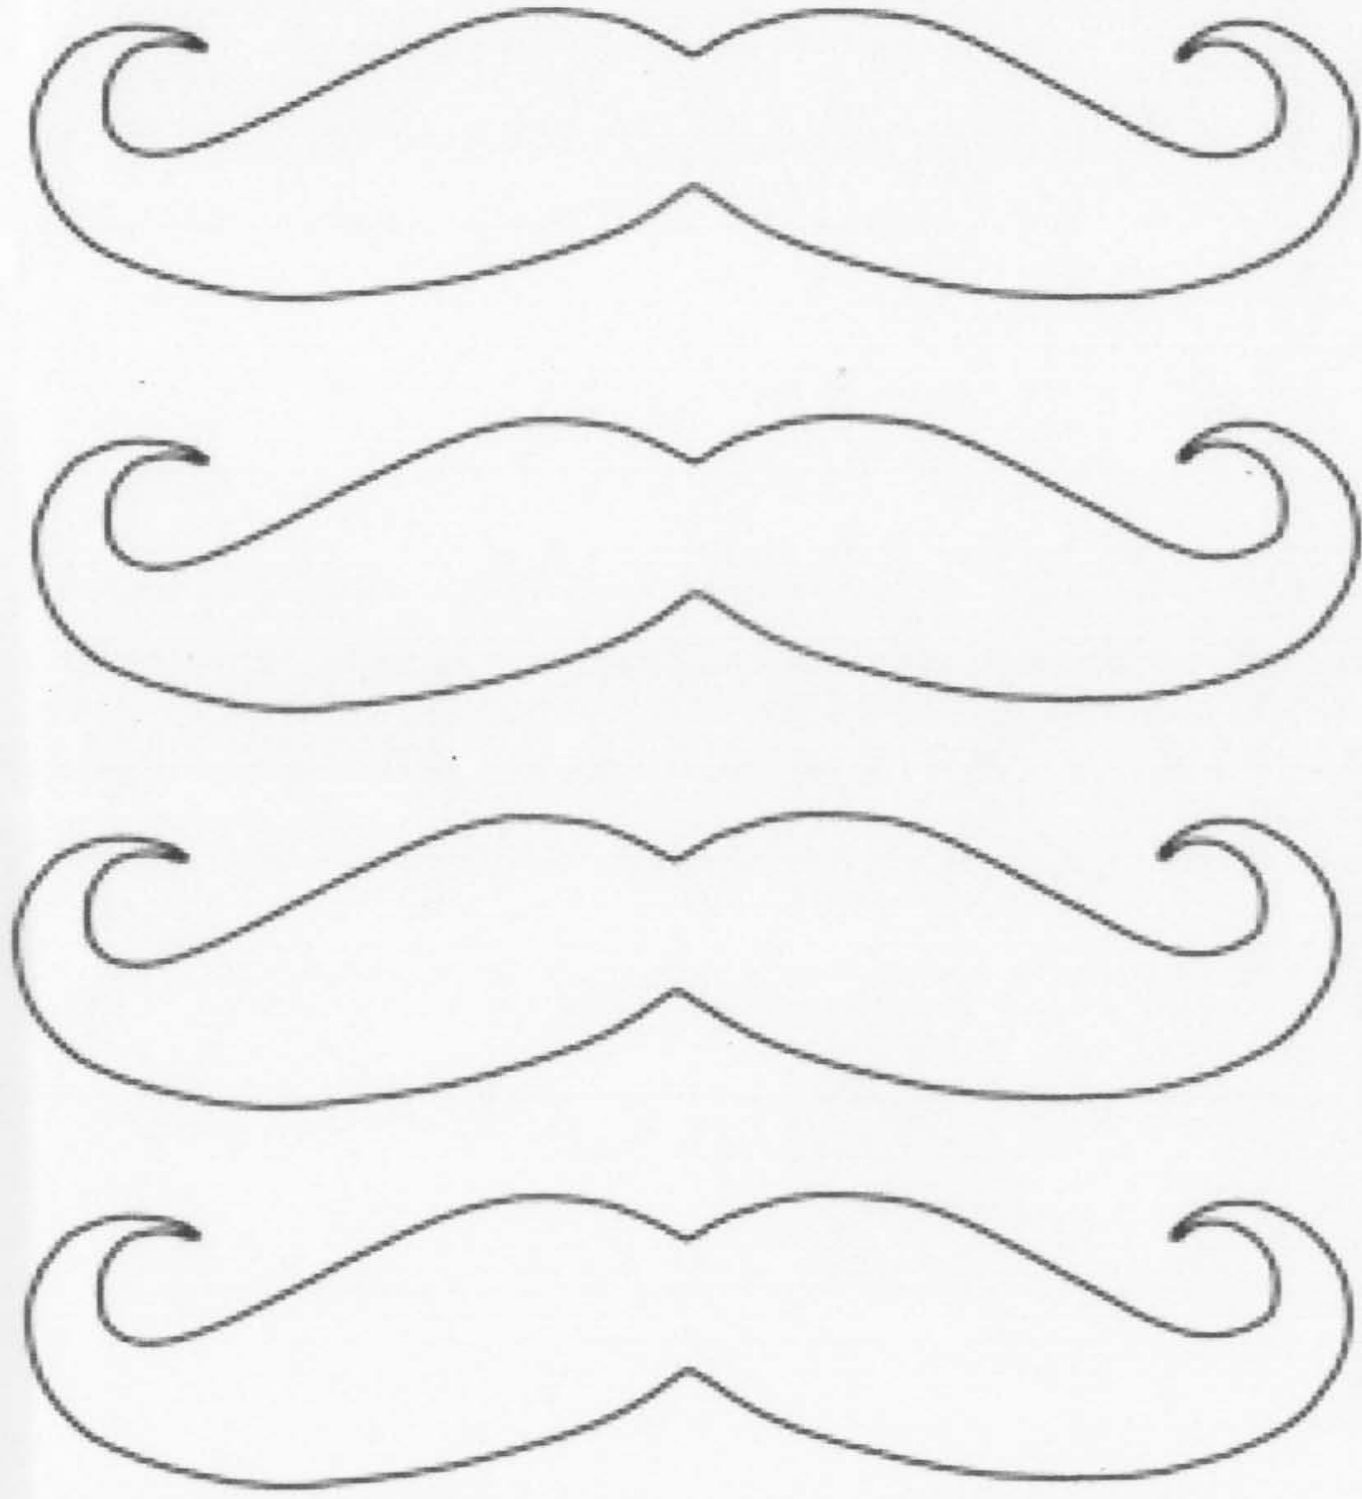

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

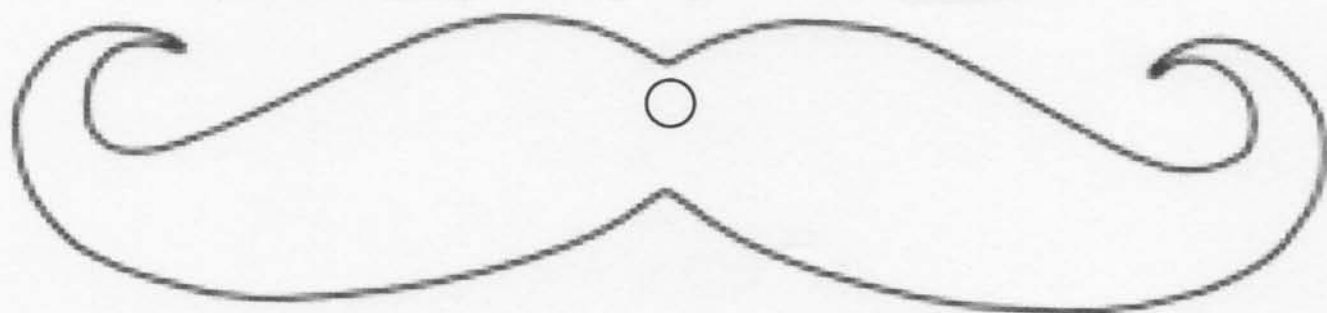

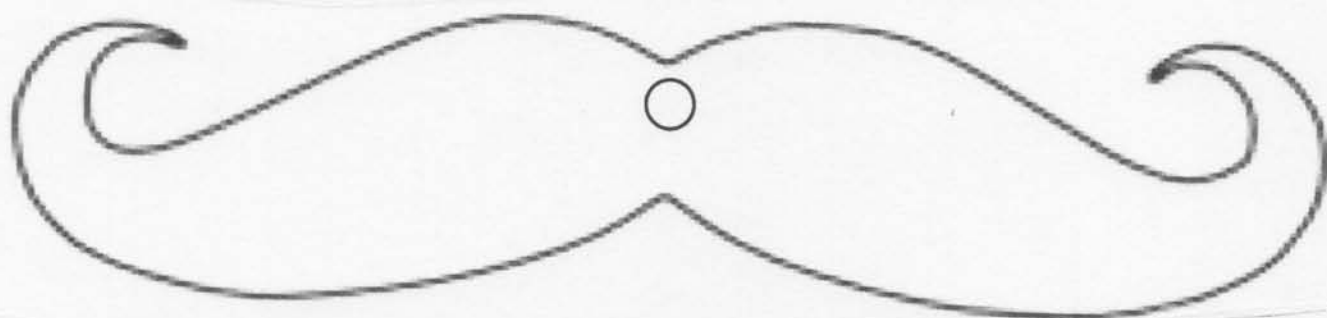

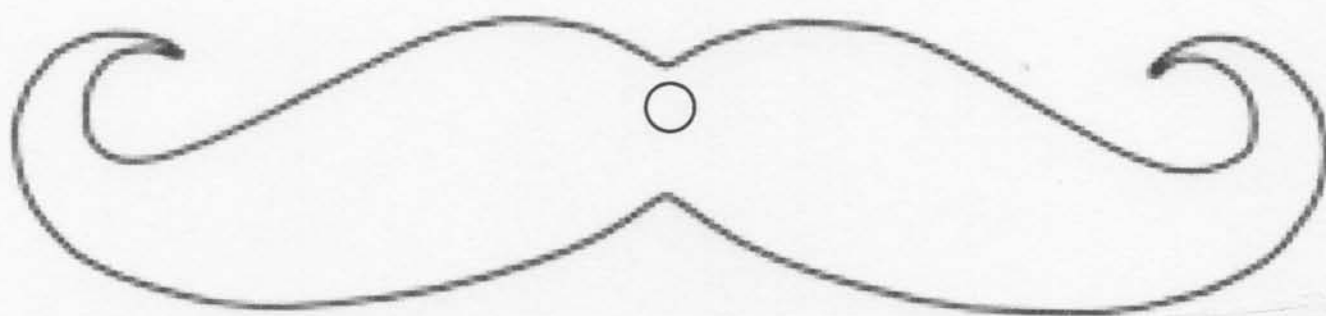

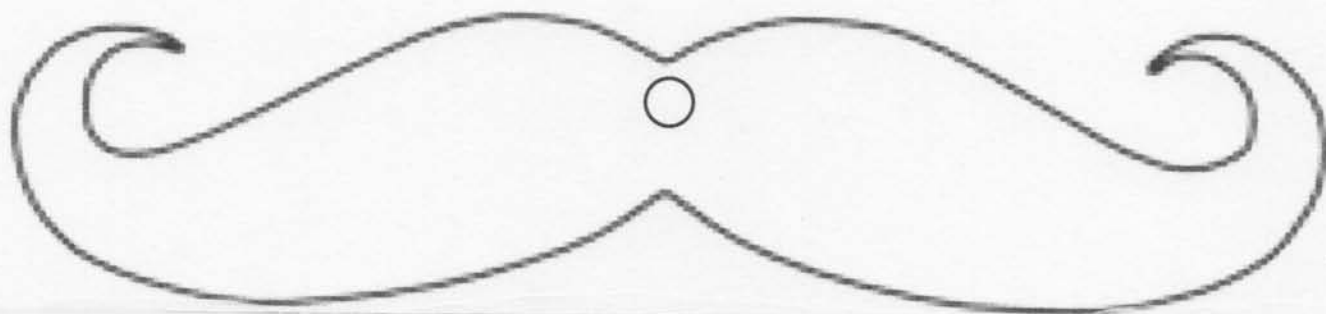

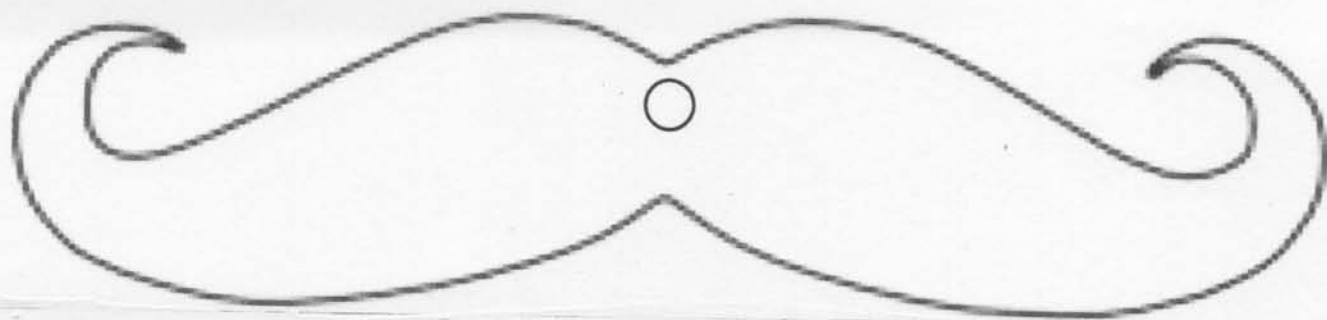

My
"stache"
of stuff.

My
"stache"
of stuff.

Run off on black or a variety of colored construction paper.
Using a glue dot, stick a Popsicle stick on the back so that students can hold it under their nose.

Run off on black or a variety of colored construction paper.
Punch a hole at the top and insert a straw.