MY WORD
BOOK

You need to do start this activity 10 days BEFORE 100 Day.

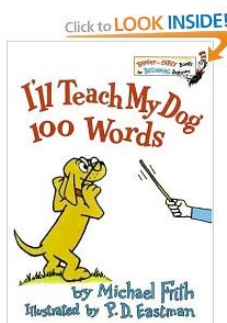

Challenge your students to try and learn 10 new words every day before 100 day.
 $10 \times 10 = 100$ words on 100 day!

OR...

choose to review 10 words each day that you've been working on since whenever. This is great for word wall words, CVC words, or spelling words.

Run off my cover, or have students create their own "My Word Book" covers by stamping letters with your letter stamps or cutting out letters from magazines, like a ransom note and then spelling out the title on their favorite half sheet of colored construction paper.

Staple their cover along with 10 sheets of writing paper and the other $\frac{1}{2}$ of their construction paper for a back, and you've got a nifty word book in a jiffy!

Read Michael Frith's I'll Teach My Dog 100 Words as the perfect introduction to this activity. I LOVE this book. It's a Cat in the Hat "Bright and Early" reader for the "youngest of the young."

These stories are "brief and funny" the words are "few and easy" and have a "happy catchy rhythm". This one rhymes. The pictures are colorful and perfect clues for your emergent readers!
